

Tobago Classic Chairman

honored with Caribbean Cycling Award

Trevor 'Sailor' Bailey
President of the Caribbean Cycling Association

Jeff Charles
Chairman of the Tobago Cycling Classic

Pat McQuaid
President of UCI (World Governing Body for Cycling)

In October 2008, the more than 2 decades old, Tobago International Cycling Classic Chairman, Jeff Charles was presented with a Special Award by the President of the Caribbean Cycling Association Mr. Trevor Bailey in the esteem presence of the President of the World Governing Body for Cycling (UCI) Mr. Pat Mc Quaid, President of the Pan American Cycling Federation, Jose Manuel Pelez, Vice President of the United States Cycling Federation, Mr. Mike Plant and the Prime Minister of St. Vincent & the Grenadines the honorable Mr. Ralph Gonzales.

Mr. Pat McQuaid was high in praise for Organizers of the Tobago Cycling Classic and complimented the Trinbago Wheelers President on his effort in raising the profile of cycling in the Region and thereby making cycling more visible and attractive to the International Cycling communities.

The UCI President stated that the Tobago Cycling Classic is key to the development of the Caribbean Cycling Fraternity and has all the credentials to be registered as an international UCI sanction Race which he (Pat McQuaid) promised to endorse. Such glowing tribute by the hierarchy of world cycling for a Caribbean endeavour speaks volumes of this initiative for which our nation can be justly proud.

Caribbean Cycling Association Press Release